

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF TWO FISHERMEN

WERE CAUGHT IN GALE AND BOAT CAPSIZED—SPENT THE NIGHT ON THE BOTTOM OF THE UPTURNED BOAT AND WERE RESCUED BY STEAMER CAPTAIN FRITZ.

The experience of Captain Bernie Tondard and Fisherman Carroll, who composed the crew of a small fishing sloop, which runs out of Pensacola is not one to be envied. Those two men, after struggling in the water with an upturned boat, finally succeeded in getting themselves safely on top of the upturned vessel, but there they remained without any means of assistance until they were nearly frozen, and but for the timely arrival of the steamer Captain Fritz, bound for Pensacola, they would not be alive to-day to tell the tale.

The sloop, with only the two men on board, was bound for Pensacola with a cargo of fish, when a severe gale was encountered. This occurred Thursday night when the vessel was 25 miles up the coast. The gale came on unexpectedly, and Captain Tondard ordered Carroll to shorten sail. Before this could be accomplished, a squall struck the boat and it was capsized, the two men falling into the icy water. After struggling for some time they finally succeeded in climbing on the bottom of the upturned boat, where they remained for several hours. The capsizing occurred over a mile from shore, and the mast of the vessel stuck firmly in the mud. The two wet and half-frozen men remained in their cramped positions for many hours, until the arrival of the steamer Captain Fritz, the next morning, which rescued them.

The two men were almost frozen and were hardly able to go on board the steamer when the crew rescued them. They had remained so long on top of the upturned boat in wet clothing, that their limbs were stiff, and but for the heroic efforts of the captain and crew of the steamer would have no doubt, perished.

The two men desire to extend thanks to the captain and crew of the Captain Fritz for the many acts of kindness extended them during the time they were on board that vessel and for their hard work in rescuing them from the upturned craft.

Captain Tondard, the owner of the wrecked vessel, not only lost his boat but also his fishing nets and cargo of fish.

USEFUL DISCOVERIES.

Not Always Startling, Neither Do They Create the Most Talk.

It is not always the greatest, most startling discoveries of science that are most useful to the human race. Comparatively few people were directly interested in Herschel's finding of the new planet Uranus, but many thousands have been benefited by Prof. Unna's experiments, which proved beyond a question that Dandruff and Baldness are the results of the invasions of a parasite germ which invades the roots of the hair.

The discovery of the true cause of baldness made Newbro's Herpicide possible. Herpicide effectively kills this germ. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect.

Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.

HEAVY BOMBARDMENT AT THE FRONT NEAR MUKDEN

Bobri is entirely burned as the result of the Japanese.

Session of Ministers.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—The committee of ministers held a second session to-day under the presidency of M. Witte.

Ratskins For Ear Muffs.
Tokio, Jan. 6.—When the time came to forward the winter outfits for the armies in Manchuria and the commissariat produced hundreds of thousands of fur ear protectors. Japanese and foreigners alike wondered where these things could have come from. No one had ever heard of their being made.

It seems that two years ago the plague was raging along the China coast. The Japanese quarantine bureau decided that strenuous efforts must be made to keep the dread disease out of the country. They determined to start a crusade. In all the larger cities bounties were offered for each rat brought in. The small boys found this a great source of revenue and the competition at once became very keen. For each rodent the hunter was given a small sum and a lottery ticket. The money he might squander, but the ticket he saved, and at the end of each month there was a drawing, with prizes varying from five to fifty dollars. Rat catching became popular amusement, and the boards of health all over the country were kept busy examining the daily bag. Each animal was duly registered and the place in which it was caught noted. It was then examined and if any suspicious germs were discovered the building from which the rat came was immediately raided and all the animals were hunted down and the place was disinfected. In this manner the plague was kept out of Japan. The small boys amused themselves and made money, but no one ever stopped to think what would become of the millions of skins of these rats that had been worrying the board of health. They had not been thrown away. The military authorities had used them to make ear protectors.

Grateful in Tokio.
Tokio, Jan. 6.—The diet at a special session to-day adopted a resolution felicitating the emperor on the success of the year's campaigning climaxed by the fall of Port Arthur, attributing it to the emperor's illustrious virtue and thanked General Nogori and the third army for their glorious achievements.

Russians Leave Port Arthur.
At Port Arthur with the Third Japanese Army, via Pusan, Jan. 6.—Only eighty Russian officers have accepted parole.

All the regular Russian troops have marched out of Port Arthur and will leave for Port Dalny to-day. Japanese troops entered the city yesterday to keep order. Non-combatants are allowed the option of remaining at Port Arthur.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT ATTORNEY
WILL REMAIN AT PORTLAND
AS LONG AS NECESSARY.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 6.—O. V. Pagin, special assistant to Attorney General Moody, is here and will remain as long as the investigations into the land frauds in the state continue.

In an interview Mr. Pagin said: "The president has started to investigate the conditions and he will not stop until the examination has been thorough. The investigations have been a long time on the way, but now that they are begun they will not cease until they have been successful in getting at the bottom of the deceptions practiced."

STREET FIGHT IN A GEORGIA TOWN

MAYOR OF HAMILTON AND EX-MARSHAL EXCHANGE SHOTS. LATTER SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 6.—Olin Barnes, mayor of Hamilton, Ga., and ex-Marshall Whitehead met on the streets of that town last night and exchanged shots, the marshal firing twice and the mayor once. Barnes was uninjured, but a few shots from Barnes's shotgun struck Whitehead in the hand, inflicting a painful but not serious wound.

Each man claims that the other fired first. It seems that recently Whitehead arrested a negro employed on Barnes's farm. Barnes wished to give bond for him, but the marshal would not accept it and threatened to lock up the mayor also, it is said.

Monday night Marshal Whitehead was arranged before the Hamilton council and was fined $10 for his conduct, whereupon he resigned his office. It is claimed that yesterday afternoon he fired a number of shots near Mayor Barnes's house. Last night the two men met, with the above result.

There have been no further developments to-day, and an effort is being made to adjust the affair peaceably. Both of the men are persons of high personal courage.

CHRISTMAS AT GRAND RIDGE

SEVERAL ENTERTAINMENTS BY SUNDAY SCHOOLS—HOLIDAY
SEASON BROUGHT HAPPINESS TO ALL.

Grand Ridge, Jan. 6.—The holiday season passed without accident, and was the occasion of much mirth and pleasure to all. The Christmas trade was much the largest ever experienced by our merchants, and there were few homes in which the little ones were not treated to more than ever before. No intoxicated person was seen upon our streets, or in our assemblies.

The Baptist Sunday school gave a Christmas tree which was used for the transfer of their gifts. The Presbyterian Sunday school gave their usual entertainment, which consisted of a prepared literary exercise, in which nearly the whole school had a part, interspersed with fine music and followed by the usual treat of a "bag full" of candies, nuts, apples and oranges to each member of the school. It is a fact worthy of mention that in the past fifteen years at all the different and varied gatherings and entertainments at Grand Ridge there has never been an act of disorder.

In these days of rush, when each seems to be determined to get the best for himself it is pleasant to note a case of real filial regard for others. Such is now seen in the family of Isaiah Brady and his wife, Sarah Brady. They are old settlers, living a mile and half west of this town, and are now growing old. Their daughters are married, and four worthy sons are single. Two boys went west some years ago, and seem to be doing well. Recently they proposed furnishing the cash part for building a new and large home on the farm for the old folks and the two remaining sons, Robert and Zack are at work on the construction.

Solomon said he had never seen "the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread." The writer is neither so old, nor so wise as Solomon, but he has never seen a boy go to the bad who was true and kind to his parents and there is no other single characteristic that so surely marks the future of a boy or girl.

The Cohasset Syrup Company closed the season one day before Christmas having made nearly a thousand barrels of fine syrup. This factory is a grand start in the right direction, but demonstrates more fully that a sugar factory and not a syrup, is what is wanted in West Florida, and we believe that within the near future this plant will be greatly enlarged and all needed machinery for sugar be added.

Judge Porter is now figuring on three different plants in Louisiana that are now to be removed for much larger machinery and he will begin at once to organize a stock company for such an enterprise. This one will be located on the opposite side of town and on the border of Lake Finlay, in close proximity to the L. & N. R. R. and suited to spur tracks reaching north and south to whatever distance the demand may require. Aside from the rates made by the railroad commission our road has voluntarily offered a better rate for the transportation of sugar cane from stations within fifty miles of the factory at Grand Ridge. Grand Ridge has set the pace for sugar manufacturing and each town should take stock in such a factory, and thus demonstrate in a very few years that each other station should have one or more such factories.

By the way, Mr. Editor, Grand Ridge furnished the syrup that inspired "The Syrup Rhapsody" in yours of 5th Inst.

Joseph Lorenz and wife of Jackson, Ala., spent the holidays with friends here, Mrs. Lorenz being a daughter of Judge and Mrs. Porter.

Julius Rupert and his sister, Miss Della, late of Indiana, have located in Grand Ridge.

Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Alva Eldridge and Miss Lottie Wester. Also Mr. Robert Norton and Miss Laura Logan.

CLASH OVER JURISDICTION

IN CHADWICK CASE AT CLEVELAND CAUSES FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TO TAKE CHARGE.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 6.—As the result of a clash between the federal and county authorities that has been on since Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick arrived from New York, as to who has jurisdiction over the prisoner's case while she is in the county jail, the federal authorities here definitely said that they would assume control under authority vested in them by the decision of the supreme court of the United States in a similar case in another state and which they think can be applied in this instance.

The dispute has arisen because of the privilege assumed by former Sheriff Barry in permitting her husband and other persons to call on Mrs. Chadwick contrary to an order of the federal judge that written permission for such interview or call should first be obtained from that court.

Sheriff Barry retired from office last Saturday at midnight. He was succeeded by George C. Mulhern.

As a county officer, Sheriff Mulhern to-day obtained from the county solicitor an opinion to the effect that inasmuch as the jail was a county institution, a United States prisoner while confined therein and was under the authority of the sheriff.

An opinion was handed to the sheriff by District Attorney John J. Sullivan, later in the day, to the effect that the federal authorities controlled Mrs. Chadwick's case and that no persons shall be allowed to see her without permission. It was maintained by District Attorney Sullivan that Mrs. Chadwick is a federal prisoner and the sheriff is for the time being a federal keeper. To enforce its order two deputy marshals have alternated in the county jail to-day and to-night in guarding the way to Mrs. Chadwick's cell.

Not even her attorney, J. P. Dawley, was allowed to see her to-day because he had not obtained permission from the federal officials. Dawley, who is a very prominent lawyer, asserted the prerogative of his calling to see his client, but the powerful deputy marshal refused him entrance to the woman's corridor in the jail. Dawley was furious and said to the marshal that if he had half as much physical strength as he had he would throw the marshal out of the window.

The trunk belonging to Mrs. Chadwick was opened to-day by Attorney Louis Grossman. The trunk contained only wearing apparel for Mrs. Chadwick, consisting of four dresses and an entire suit of moleskin, the whole being worth, Mr. Grossman thought, perhaps four or five thousand dollars.

Both the trunk and satchel which were carefully guarded while Mrs. Chadwick was in New York city, have been opened and the contents examined by Mr. Grossman. The result shows nothing that will add materially to Mrs. Chadwick's assets.
